Company Background

About Us

Engineering Medical Fund (EMF) is a wholly Zimbabwean company which provides medical aid services at affordable rates. Our packages are specially crafted to appeal to a diverse demographic as well as suit every household income.

We offer nationwide coverage with membership across all major cities and towns in the country and also have branches in Harare, Bulawayo and Kwekwe.

Our History

Engineering Medical Fund (EMF) was formed in 1948. Its formation was a result of a collective bargaining agreement between representatives from both parties, the employees and employers union, in the Engineering industry.

During that time, EMF's packages were specifically designed to meet the needs of skilled workers in the Engineering Sector only. Over the years, the company became a success story as a result of its high customer service standards.

Consequently, the overwhelming success of EMF led to a growing demand in the company's services from different sectors and in 1990, the doors were eventually opened to all walks of life. To date, the Society now has membership dotted in all the major cities countrywide.
